“I could not imagine that a member of the Anaheim Police Department, regardless of the reasons that they came to my home, would do the things that this police officer had done and make lewd, inappropriate and obscene comments to my 17-year-old classmate.”

“The realization that an Anaheim Police Officer had done this to me and to Brittany, was devastating.

I was extremely distraught over what had occurred and became so emotional I couldn't talk any longer to Brittany.”

Declaration of Antonio Vilchez, in opposition to motion of Defendant, City of Anaheim Police Superior Court Case #04CC11432

The Judge laughed at Anaheim Police Department counsel when asked to dismissed this case. Officer Vangsness and Hoang schemed to transfer blame to an Hispanic officer for police misconduct of sexually explicit emails to an underage girl. Unfortunately our City has to pay judgments and settlements for Police misconduct, therefore, it does not matter which Anaheim police officer violated the Loara High School Honor Roll Students. Each Anaheim police officer present in the room played out their sexual fantasies and joined in.

Antonio Vilchez, is 3.86 grade point average honor roll student with numerous certificates of extraordinary achievement, played the tenor saxophone in Mr. Schroeder's Loara High School Band, a band that finished first place in most of their competitions, and Antonio's classmate Brittany Donlon is a 3.6 grade point average honor roll student who has the distinction of earning a letter three consecutive years Varsity Sports at Loara High School.

I returned from Las Vegas with circulars for Officers' Steve Rodig, Craig Hunter, Greg Palmer and their sexually perverted buddies on the Anaheim police force. For Steve Rodig, Hush Hush I won't tell! Las Vegas Mamis Direct to your room. This Mami wears a little more clothes than that slumlord Rodig was fooling with! For Craig Hunter, Affordable College Girls, because Hunter or his officers should not be messing with High School Girls from Loara High School. For Greg Palmer, After Dark Girls, so he can still take photographs with Hooters Girls during daylight! And for Officer Hoang, Barely Legal Asians, because it is a crime to send sexually explicit emails to underage girls.
